Prerequisites: None Credit: 3 semesters hours

Description: Fundamentals of writing for the mass media. Includes instruction in professional methods and techniques for gathering, processing, and delivering content.

The first half of the semester will concentrate on the basics of news and reporting as well as online news writing. The second half will concentrate on broadcast news writing.

Supplies Needed: Items used to take notes; folder or notebook where you will save syllabus, schedule, notes, handouts, and graded stories.

Course Requirements: Students should attend all class/ lab meetings and complete all assignments.

Required Textbook: Associated Press Stylebook and Libel Manual.
NY: The Associated Press

Evaluation: Students' grades in this class will be determined by the following:

900 – 1000 points = A

800- 899 points = B

700 – 799 points = C

600 – 699 points = D

Below 600 = F

In addition to classwork assignments, you will write stories. Some will be short, others will be longer. The goal is to publish as much of your writing as possible on the SPC online newspaper.

www.TexanMosaic.com

You will have one midterm exam. And your final exam will take the form of a script for a video story. The best version in the class will be produced for publication on the TexanMosaic.

In addition to stories, assignments, quizzes and exams, your final grade will include 100 points of participation which is determined by the grid below.

Student Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

1. Demonstrate proper media writing and editing styles.
2. Modify writing styles to fit various media platforms.
3. Demonstrate effective information gathering skills and techniques.
4. Demonstrate understanding of laws, ethics, and responsibilities of media writing.

Technical Requirements: It is in your best interest to have reliable access to Internet service and a computer so that you can send and receive e-mail, access lectures, write stories as long as 3 pages, submit assignments, participate in Collaborate sessions, and take exams. Please do NOT try to complete this class using on the SPC app on your smartphone.

Please visit with me about computer issues! I can't help you if I don't know what your issues are.

Technical Skill Requirements. Be comfortable with the following:

Microsoft Word or being able to save Word compatible files (.doc); an alternative is to convert assignment files to .rtf or .pdf

Using email for communication, attaching documents

The ability to download video files, or to stream files

The ability to take digital photographs and upload them as .jpg files into assignment windows on Blackboard

Absence Policy: Students are expected to attend all classes and labs in order to be successful in this course.

I'm sure there will be multiple reasons why you might be absent this semester this semester, such as quarantine, isolation, illness, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity.

Please do NOT assume that I will contact you to tell you about missed work. It's safe to assume there will be multiple classwork assignments each day of class. You may or may not be allowed to do "makeup" depending on the length and reason for your absence and supporting documentation.

Do NOT assume that I will move deadlines for you unless you contact me and offer acceptable reasons why you cannot meet them.

In the event that you miss an exam, you must notify me within 48 hours about why. You may or may not be able to "make up" the missed exam. If you miss an exam due to COVID-19, you will take the exam the day you return.

Deadlines: The assignments in this class will be deadline driven. You must keep track of deadlines and submit work when it is due.

ALL deadlines are absolute. You need to get used to deadlines that exist in the off-campus world. All assignments will be due at the beginning of each class. Late assignments may be penalized harshly if they are accepted at all.

Excuses: Don't bother to try any. I've heard most of them and have used some of them myself. Only deaths of immediate family members (parents, grandparents, siblings – ONLY), or your own, may be considered for an excused absence. Of course, you will need to provide proof (such as the obituary notice). Student athletes or those participating in other college-sponsored activities that require an absence, will be excused, with prior notice to me and appropriate documentation.

Withdrawal Policy: The last day to withdraw/drop with a grade of "W" is Dec. 2.

It is the student's responsibility to withdraw from this course. Otherwise, students will be assigned their earned letter grade at the end of the course. Course averages will be updated frequently, and guidance will be provided throughout the term to help students decide whether they need to drop the class or not. For more information regarding drops/withdrawals, please

Students are officially enrolled in all courses for which they pay tuition and fees at the time of registration. Should a student, for any reason, delay in reporting to a class after official enrollment, absences will be attributed to the student from the first class meeting.

Students who enroll in a course but have “Never Attended” by the official census date, as reported by the faculty member, will be administratively dropped by the Office of Admissions and Records.

It is the student’s responsibility to verify administrative drops for excessive absences through MySPC using his or her student online account. If it is determined that a student is awarded financial aid for a class or classes in which the student never attended or participated, the financial aid award will be adjusted in accordance with the classes in which the student did attend/participate and the student will owe any balance resulting from the adjustment.

Tardiness Policy:

I enforce a 5-minute rule tardiness rule. I use the clock in the classroom or on my computer to check the time. You may come to class up to 5 minutes late. That’s the cutoff. If you arrive after that 5-minute window, you’ll be given one warning. The next time you arrive to class past the 5 minute window, you’ll be asked to turn leave. I may or may not have taken attendance already if you arrive 5 minutes late. It’s up to you to make sure you are marked present.

Academic Integrity

It is the aim of the faculty of South Plains College to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of any student to present as his or her own any work which he or she has not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a most serious offense and renders the offender liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension.

Each student is expected to abide by absolute honesty. Infractions will result in penalties subject to an assignment of a grade of “F” for the course or expulsion from the college. Students should also regard civility online as a requirement to remain on the roll in class.

As future professionals, you are to communicate with each other in a professional and civil manner. Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

Cheating: Dishonesty of any kind on examinations or on written assignments, illegal possession of examinations, the use of unauthorized notes during an examination, obtaining information during an examination from the textbook or from the examination paper of another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry or unauthorized presence in an office are examples of cheating. Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of course work. This applies to quizzes of whatever length, as well as to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers.

Plagiarism: Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgment, is plagiarism; therefore, any student who fails to give credit for quotations or essentially identical expression of material taken from books, encyclopedias, magazines and other reference works, or from the themes, reports or other writings of fellow student, is guilty of plagiarism.
